

I just want to comment that I would not like to see the laws for telephone privacy in the State of Indiana changed. The do-not-call list has been a wonderful thing, I do not want to see it circumvented by companies.